Luke's Dependable Information

Luke 1:1-4

(1)

Intro. A. It is said that we today live in the age of information.

1. Satellite, cable, Antenna, bring in hundreds of channels to our T.V.s.

2. Radio has, H.M.S., F.M. and Satellite stereo.

3. Now, news of world events is money.

4. Current events drive our economy. Wall Street is affected by the news media.

5. We must have dependable information, only then can we re-act to truth and not to Henney Penny, "the sky is falling" kind of reporting.

B. This account by Luke of the birth, life, teachings, death and resurrection of Jesus Christ is dependable information.

Vs. 4 1. Certainty = ἀσφαλεία = "Steadfastness," "firmness;" "stability;" "without tottering or failing" and thus completely dependable.

2. In Luke's age there were only two sources of information, vocal and written reports.

3. As in our age there were thousands of reports written about Jesus. There were the official reports to Rome, common knowledge letters to friends and relatives, Jews writing to Jews,

4. Also there were inspired accounts that ultimately became God's word, the New Testament.

C. Luke, a trained physician, following a thorough investigation, made a dependable report to Theophilus, a believer in Christ.

15. "surely believed" = πληροφορεω = to make full, used of measures and weights, here of persons, to be fully believed or fully proved and confirmed.
