Lessons From Nature And History

Matthew 24:32-42

Intro:

- A. Jesus answered His disciples' questions.
 - 1. "When shall these things be?"
 - 2. "What shall be the sign of thy coming?"
- B. His answers were direct, to the point.
 - 1. The first, vs.4-28
 - 2. The second, vs.29-31

I. A Lesson From Nature.

- A. "Now learn a parable of the fig tree"
 - 1. Tender branches and leafing. V.32
 - 2. "Ye know that summer is nigh"
- B. The application.
 - 1. This applies to question #1 and #2 v.33
 - 2. "...when ye shall see all these things..."
 - 3. "...it is near even at the doors..."
 - 4. When these disciples saw verse 15 being fulfilled they knew that Jerusalem would be destroyed.
 - 5. When disciples in the future saw the signs listed in verse 29 they are to know the kingdom is near. Luke 21:28 "Your redemption draweth near." "...the kingdom of God is nigh at hand."
 - 6. The destruction of Jerusalem, "these things" during the lifetime of those listening to Him. V.34
 - 7. Everything Jesus has said in answering these questions will come to pass. V.35

II. A Lesson From History.

- A. Jesus taught them about the last question, "the sign of thy coming."
 - No man, no angel, knows the day or the hour. God's people may know the season.
 - 2. 1 Thessalonians 5:1-8
- B. A lesson from the days of Noah.

- 1. The formal comparison. V.37
- 2. Things were "normal". V.38
- Those other than Noah's family were unbelieving of Noah's message. V.39

C. The taking away.

- 1. Two shall be in the field. V.40
- 2. Two shall be grinding at the mill. V.41
- 3. Paul's writing on this subject. 1 Thessalonians 4:13-17
- 4. Again the catching away.
- 5. Paul informs the Corinthians. 1 Corinthians 15:51-52